

STEEL LECHASING FEATRES AT LAUREL THIS WEEK--SURPRISES IN FOOTBALL WORLD

Timber Toppers Feature Week's Program at Laurel

Chevy Chase Steeplechase for $5,000, With Three Overnight Jumping Events, Carded For Patrons—Classy Bunch in Big Race.

No matter what may be the outcome of the effort to revive the John R. McLean Memorial Cup this week as a special for 2-year-olds, with Blazes, Constance, Wildair, John P. Grier, On Watch and one or two of the other juvenile stars competing in a $2,500 sweep at three-quarters of a mile with the Maryland State Fair adding a purse of $5,000, it is a certainty that there will be good steeplechasing at Laurel Park this week.

There are four chances on the overnight card of the Maryland State Fair, the culminating feature being the $5,000 Chevy Chase which will be decided next Saturday.

Jumpers in Limelight.
The running of the Chevy Chase will inaugurate the season of first-class cross-country racing in Maryland. From next Saturday on to the final of the Maryland Jockey Club's fall meeting at Pimlico the best chasers will be showing their stuff right along.

The Pimlico feature will be the $10,000 Manly Memorial. The Manly Memorial, like the Chevy Chase, will be a gallop of two miles and a half. The only star jumper of the current season that will be missed from the Chevy Chase, perhaps, will be The Brock, the undisputed champion of the cross-country field these two years, even if he was beaten at Pimlico last November in the 1918 renewal of the Manly Memorial.

Specs Crawford's bad riding kept The Brock in the Manly Memorial last season. Goblin looked like a coming star, but he had not had time to prove it before he broke down at Laurel Park the other day.

Good Jumpers Eligible.
Conspicuous among the jumpers now at Laurel Park are those eligible to start in the Chevy Chase and are about ready for the colors are the former Manly Memorial winners, Brook and Ret, the champion of the Manly Memorial, Doublet, Doublet and Stonewall, Toppy Nix, Hilber, Robin Goodfellow and Elystan, Debadou and Syosset, Warlock, Bughouse and Man of the Hour, to mention no others.

The Harting of Blankenburg, of course, is problematical. This big son of Knight Errant, which four and five seasons back could beat any chaser over the long course, has not chaser since he broke down in the running of the Brook Cup in 1915. When Blankenburg bowed a tendon in the great three-mile chase at Belmont Park, Archibald Barklie immediately shipped the Knight Errant to the country in Pennsylvania and turned him out. For more than a year Blankenburg did not feel the weight of a saddle, gradually his tendon straightened and his lameness disappeared.

In the course of the last year and a half he has been back to his riding horse and the Pennsylvania turfman a 200-pounder. He has not taken a lame step for upward of two years and he seems to be back to his old good as he ever was. Whether he will prove good enough to run the sort of race the real Blankenburg should run in the Chevy Chase or not, Barkie will find out in the course of his first-class performance at Laurel Park or Pimlico in the course of the season.
